

Elivity Packaging by Angela Spindler Wins Bronze in A' Design Award Competition

*Innovative Supplement Packaging Design
Recognized for Excellence in A' Design
Award's Packaging Design Category*

COMO, CO, ITALY, August 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized competition in the field of packaging design, has announced Elivity, a groundbreaking supplement packaging design by Angela Spindler, as the recipient of the Bronze A' Design Award in the Packaging Design category. This prestigious accolade highlights the exceptional creativity, functionality, and impact of Elivity within the competitive packaging industry.

Elivity's innovative packaging design stands out for its ability to align with current trends and needs in the supplement market. By embodying a dynamic and vibrant approach to health and wellness, this design challenges conventional notions and offers a fresh perspective that resonates with modern consumers. The practical benefits of Elivity's packaging extend to users, the industry, and stakeholders, showcasing its utility and potential to drive positive change.

What sets Elivity apart is its bold and impactful design, which departs from the traditional white aesthetic prevalent in the supplement category. The vibrant color scheme and graphic representations of cellular forms command attention and convey a sense of energy and vitality. The design system, rooted in cellular structures, reflects the product's core function of supporting cell longevity, creating a visual identity that is both precise and organic.

Winning the Bronze A' Design Award serves as a testament to Angela Spindler and her team's commitment to excellence and innovation in packaging design. This recognition is expected to inspire future projects and drive further exploration of cutting-edge design solutions that prioritize functionality, aesthetics, and environmental responsibility. The award motivates the team to continue pushing boundaries and setting new standards in the packaging industry.

Elivity was designed by Angela Spindler, who served as the Designer and Creative Director for the project.
