The 17th Gulf Heart Association Conference, the largest cardiac event in the region, is set to take place in Doha, Qatar, from November 20 to 22, 2025. The conference, organized by the Gulf Heart Association (GHA), is a premier platform for cardiac professionals to share knowledge, discuss the latest advancements in cardiology, and network with peers. The event will feature a comprehensive program of scientific sessions, including plenary lectures, workshops, and roundtable discussions, covering a wide range of topics from basic science to clinical practice. The conference is expected to attract a large number of participants from across the Middle East and beyond, making it a must-attend event for all cardiac professionals in the region.

The conference is a testament to the commitment of the GHA to promoting excellence in cardiac care and research. It provides a unique opportunity for professionals to engage in meaningful discussions and collaborations, fostering a sense of community and shared purpose. The event is also a platform for showcasing the latest research and clinical innovations, ensuring that participants are up-to-date with the latest developments in the field. The conference is a must-attend event for all cardiac professionals in the region, offering a wealth of knowledge and networking opportunities.
