“Smith’s ability to seamlessly coordinate accounts spanning multiple continents is driven by our continuous efforts to effectively anticipate and alleviate the needs of our customers,” said Lindsey. “As I take on this exciting challenge, I look forward to deepening our strategic partnerships, enhancing customer engagement, and driving sustainable, long-term growth.”

Lindsey joined Smith in August 2011 as an office manager and has held several leadership roles during her tenure with the company. After a brief period away, she rejoined Smith in 2024 as Director of Business Development, US, where she played a pivotal role in shaping Smith’s account-management strategy. Throughout her career, she has demonstrated a profound understanding of Smith’s customer landscape, a goal-oriented mindset, and a clear commitment to delivering meaningful value to the company’s broad customer base.

“Lindsey has led some of our most successful global account teams with unwavering focus, meticulous organization, and collaborative leadership,” said Todd Burke, Chief Commercial Officer at Smith. “Her insights and business acumen have made a lasting impact on our company, and I am confident she will continue to strengthen and elevate Smith’s strategic partnerships worldwide.”
