

Step Into the Future of Storytelling: Scribe Video Center Launches Augmented Reality Workshop this August

Join Scribe Video Center for an all-new workshop on Augmented Reality for storytelling, starting Tuesday, August 12, 2025 at 7PM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Augmented Reality (AR) are technologies that allow us to enhance the images and sounds of the real world through immersive visual and audio technologies. Join Scribe Video Center for "Augmented Reality: Multi-Reality Storytelling" led by Taj Rauch, a brand-new 3-week workshop in immersive technologies starting Tuesday, August 12, that offers an entry point into the world of AR, focusing on storytelling, cultural preservation, and collaborative creation.

Event Details:

Augmented Reality: Multi-Reality Storytelling

When: Tuesday, August 12, 19, and 26, 7:00 PM

Where: Scribe Video Center, 3908 Lancaster Avenue

Cost: $100, $75 for Scribe Members

Link to register: SCRIBE.ORG/AR

About the Workshop:

This hands-on workshop will use tools like Adobe Aero and Niantic Studio to show you how to bring objects and artifacts to life – through your smartphone for others to experience. By the end of this workshop, you will have a better understanding of how to create your own AR experience through two different softwares and will have a fully realized AR experience rooted in storytelling and creative exploration.
