

Author Michael A. Nowotny Presents 'Stadiums of America'

A Photographic Journey Through Iconic Sports Venues

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In Stadiums of America, renowned fine art photographer Michael A. Nowotny offers an abstract and artistic exploration of the football, baseball, and college stadiums across the United States. This photographic collection showcases a stunning, creative perspective on the iconic venues that have shaped American sports culture. Nowotny's work provides a visual journey for readers and sports enthusiasts alike, highlighting not only the grandeur of these stadiums but also their architectural beauty through the lens of art.

With over 50 years of experience in photography, Michael A. Nowotny brings a unique and artistic touch to the world of sports photography. The images in Stadiums of America invite viewers to experience these famous stadiums in a way they've never seen before—capturing both their history and modern-day significance. Whether a stadium is a place the reader has visited or one they dream of seeing, this book connects fans with the awe-inspiring venues that are the heart of American sports.

"Stadiums of America" was inspired by Nowotny's brother, whose encouragement pushed him to fulfill his dream of documenting these cultural landmarks. Nowotny explains, "It's something I've always wanted to do, and with the support of my family, I finally brought it to life. This project is a tribute to my passion for photography and my love for sports."
