private companies in America. This marks the fifth consecutive year The Pipeline Group has earned a spot on the list, a rare achievement that underscores the company’s sustained growth and industry leadership.

Of the tens of thousands of companies that have applied to the Inc. 5000 over the years, only a fraction have made the list more than once. 3.5% percent have made the list five times, with less than 1% achieving this feat in consecutive years as The Pipeline Group has.

The Inc. 5000 list celebrates entrepreneurial success stories from across the nation, highlighting companies that have demonstrated exceptional revenue growth and resilience. Alumni of the list include household names like Microsoft, Pandora, and Under Armour, companies that began as visionary startups and grew to shape their industries.

“To be named to the Inc. 5000 for the fifth year in a row is a testament to the dedication, innovation, and hard work of our global team,” said Ken Jisser, Founder & CEO of The Pipeline Group. “In a constantly changing business landscape, we’ve remained focused on delivering exceptional pipeline generation for our clients, that same consistency has fueled our growth year after year.”

The Pipeline Group specializes in delivering their proprietary “SDR-as-a-Service” model, combining outsourced Business Development Representative (BDR) teams with management, strategy and proprietary data to deliver consistent pipeline generation. Serving clients worldwide, the company deploys in-market teams that generate high-quality sales opportunities which drive growth for hundreds of B2B SaaS clients.

The complete list of Inc. 5000 honorees has been published at Inc.com today, and will be featured in the September issue of Inc. magazine.
