

SUMMER SONIC 2025 to Be Live Streamed via Stagecrowd Across 7 Countries and Regions in Asia

TOKYO, JAPAN, August 14, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SUMMER SONIC, which was first held in 2000, is the leading urban music festival. The summer festival, held simultaneously in Tokyo and Osaka, is truly unique and has excited many music fans. This year, performances from many artists are anticipated, and livestreaming will be conducted for the Tokyo venue of this event to seven countries and regions in Asia. This year's participating artists will also include numerous performers from both Japan and abroad, transcending musical genres. (Note: The list of streaming artists will be announced later.)

Summer Sonic 2025 live Streaming for ASIA

SUMMER SONIC 2025 will be streamed overseas on Stagecrowd on August 16th (Saturday) and August 17th (Sunday) Japan time. In Japan, WOWOW will live stream SUMMER SONIC 2025.

There will be no on-demand streaming, so don't miss the broadcast day! The first lineup of performing artists already announced on August 8 (Friday), and the second lineup will be announced soon, with the streaming timetable being made public! Details will be published on the Stagecrowd ticket sales website.

Every summer, this performance exceeds the expectations of music fans, and many domestic artists in Japan aspire to stand on this stage, continuing to grow significantly with each event held. The overseas distribution, a first for SUMMER SONIC, is also something to look forward to.
