

Mushroom by Hyunjae Noh Wins Bronze in A' Furniture Design Awards

Innovative side table crafted from repurposed wood scraps recognized for sustainable design and unique aesthetic

COMO, CO, ITALY, August 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized award in the field of furniture design, has announced Hyunjae Noh's innovative side table, "Mushroom," as a Bronze winner in the Furniture Design category. This prestigious recognition highlights the significance of Noh's design within the furniture industry, celebrating its exceptional creativity, functionality, and commitment to sustainability.

Mushroom's recognition by the A' Furniture Design Award underscores its relevance to current trends and needs within the furniture industry. By repurposing wood scraps that would otherwise be discarded, Noh's design aligns with the growing emphasis on sustainable practices and responsible material usage. The unique end-grain pattern created by the repurposed wood not only adds visual interest but also demonstrates the potential for innovative design solutions that minimize waste.

What sets Mushroom apart is its clever utilization of wood scraps, transforming them into a functional and visually striking side table. The tabletop features an eye-catching cross-sectional design, showcasing three different types of wood arranged in a three-dimensional end-grain pattern. The smoothly curved legs, reminiscent of a mushroom stem, add to the table's organic aesthetic. With a height of 380mm, Mushroom serves as a versatile piece, suitable for use as a coffee table or bedside table.
