LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

KAMEL KRIFA

Kamel Krifa Celebrated 4 Decades of Action Excellence and Hollywood Leadership

LATIFF Honoree: Kamel Krifa

Attendees can participate in exclusive discussion panels, including:

- "Inside the Creative Process": A candid talk with producers and directors
- "Women in Film": A dialogue on female leadership, representation, and opportunity in the industry

Spotlight on Lifetime Achievement Honoree: Kamel Krifa

The festival will culminate in honoring Kamel Krifa with the Lifetime Legacy Achievement Award. A Belgian actor, producer, and martial arts trainer, Krifa was born in Tunisia and raised in Brussels. His career began alongside Jean-Claude Van Damme, whom he trained with from the age of 13, and he was later discovered at the 1989 Cannes Film Festival by producer Mark DiSalle.

Krifa's film credits include Death Warrant, Lionheart, Double Impact, Universal Soldier, Maximum Risk, and Legionnaire. He worked with Steven Seagal on Under Siege and appeared in TV hits like Baywatch and Thunder in Paradise. Behind the camera, he has served as associate producer and co-producer on multiple action films, including Kickboxer, Knock Off, and Pound of Flesh.

His performance as Tong Po in Kickboxer IV remains a fan favorite for its intensity and physicality. A lifelong martial artist, Krifa trains daily and advocates for using cinema as a force for unity and positive change. He also serves as a member of the 90210 Enterprise Advisory Executive Council, extending his influence into mentorship and leadership across industries.

The Los Angeles Tribune International Film Festival is a visionary platform celebrating cinematic legacy, creative innovation, and purpose-driven storytelling. Created by The Los Angeles Tribune, LATIFF brings together global leaders, artists, and changemakers who use film to educate, inspire, and connect the world.
