Indonesia Basic Chemicals Market, by Application

WILMINGTON, DE, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Indonesia basic chemicals market is experiencing steady growth, driven by the rising use of inorganic chemicals in fertilizer production and their increasing applications in pharmaceuticals and the building & construction sector. According to a report by Allied Market Research, the market was valued at $17.6 billion in 2020 and is projected to hit $35.1 billion by 2030, expanding at a CAGR of 7.2% from 2021 to 2030.

However, the market faces headwinds from health risks linked to inorganic and organic petrochemicals as well as oleochemicals. On the upside, the development of new chemical products is expected to unlock lucrative opportunities for industry players in the coming years.
