

14th Annual Rock Your World Benefit Concert Set for September 7

Free Event to Raise Funds for Hope for Haiti Foundation, US Veterans Corp, NCLEAP, and Musical Empowerment

CARY, NC, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the fourteenth year, the Rock Your World (RYW) team will be hosting a community-focused, family-friendly benefit concert to raise funds for charity. This year's event will take place Sunday, Sept. 7, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Fenton Square in Cary, and features live music from the Band of Brothers, the Rae Radick Band from Nashville, TN and the American Bombshells. Attendees will also be treated to a military tribute featuring a flyover from the Raleigh-based Bandit Flight Team. The main benefit concert will raise awareness of and funds for Hope for Haiti Foundation, US Veterans Corp, NCLEAP and Musical Empowerment, with every dollar donated going directly to these charities.

"If you like classic rock and honoring our military/first responders (including Cary's Police and Firefighters), you will love Rock Your World," said Mark Martyak, chairman of RYW. "This family-friendly event will take place rain or shine under a tent in Fenton's beautiful central park."

A new addition to RYW, an upscale evening event is being hosted for the first time on Saturday, Sept. 6 from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the Mayton Inn, entitled "Sounds of Gratitude". Sounds of Gratitude is a ticketed event featuring gourmet dining, an open bar, and can't-miss entertainment from NYC's Mary Porter, Mexico's Enrique Allende and Carolina Ballet pianist Kark Moraski. A few seats remain, and reservations can be made by contacting secretaryandsocial@gmail.com.

"What I love about HFHF is there is Zero Entitlement...it is truly Haitians helping Haitians," said Drew Schenck, owner of Dram & Draught, one of the Fenton businesses involved. Along with his work in Haiti, Schenck, a veteran himself, is involved in the local USVETs Corp. "RYW is also proud to support NCLEAP, a great organization that supports local fallen and injured first responders and their families. We'll be honoring Cary Police and Firefighters with a ceremony during the day's events."

"Fenton was created to be the perfect home for vibrant, meaningful community events like Rock Your World," said Robert Canepa, General Manager for Fenton. "We look forward to hosting this dynamic fundraising event for the fourth year in a row and welcoming the Town of Cary to join us in this day of family fun."

This year, sponsors to date include PowerSecure, Land Farm Game, Financial Strategies, Vogel Companies, Endeavour, Gaylor Electric, PQS, The Mayton Inn, Towne Bank, Grey Hound Power, Dram & Draught, Social House Vodka, Moonbird Gin, Ruggero Piano, S&A Communications, Cary Magazine and Wake Living.
