

Ziperase Partners with Liquid PC for Exclusive Enterprise Data Erasure Distribution

Industry veterans deliver certified data erasure solutions through established distribution channels

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ziperase LLC, the certified automated data erasure company, today announced an exclusive distribution partnership with Liquid PC to accelerate enterprise market adoption of its data erasure solutions. The partnership combines Ziperase's proven technology with Liquid PC's established distribution expertise to deliver modern data erasure solutions to enterprise customers.

Proven Leadership and Technology

Our partnership with Liquid PC allows us to reach enterprise customers who need reliable data erasure solutions without the complexity of legacy systems."

Khalid Elibiary, President of Ziperase

Ziperase was founded by the original Tabernus leadership team, industry veterans who previously built one of two companies recognized worldwide as distinct leaders in data erasure technology. Under President Khalid Elibiary's leadership, the team transformed Tabernus into the market leader for data erasure software in the USA before its acquisition by Blancco Technology Group in 2015. "We've evolved the proven technology that defined industry standards, now with modern architecture," said Khalid Elibiary, President of Ziperase. "Our partnership with Liquid PC allows us to reach enterprise customers who need reliable data erasure solutions without the complexity of legacy systems."

Competitive Advantages

Ziperase enters the market with several key differentiators: modern API-first architecture that integrates seamlessly with existing ERP, Asset Management, and ServiceNow platforms; proven certifications ensuring full regulatory compliance; and flexible deployment options ranging from Secure Portable for field operations to enterprise-scale automation through Secure Command and Secure Array platforms.

Strategic Partnership Benefits

The partnership provides immediate access to regulated industries including healthcare, financial services, and government sectors through Liquid PC's established channel relationships.
