ICRAPAIN 2025 aims to bridge the gap between research and clinical practice, empowering physicians with the skills to deliver precision-guided interventions and improved patient outcomes.

"ICRAPAIN is more than a conference—it's an international movement to raise the standards of pain medicine. This year, our focus on MSK ultrasound reflects a commitment to precision, safety, and innovation in patient care," said Dr. Gautam Das, Patron-in-Chief of ICRAPAIN 2025.
