

Fuel50 Honored with Bronze Stevie® Award at 2025 International Business Awards®

Fuel50 has been awarded a Bronze Stevie® Award in the HCM Solution category at the prestigious 22nd Annual International Business Awards® (IBA).

LAGUNA NIGUEL, CA, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fuel50, the leading Talent Intelligence Platform, has been awarded a Bronze Stevie® Award in the Human Capital Management Solution category at the prestigious 22nd Annual International Business Awards® (IBA).

Fuel50 earned top marks in the Enterprise Human Capital Management Solution category for its measurable impact on workforce transformation. The platform's capabilities — including AI-powered skills creation, mapping, and governance — have helped enterprise clients achieve:

- 60% reduction in employee churn
- 67% increase in internal mobility
- 500+ business days saved annually

Judges commended Fuel50 for delivering “very good achievement in employee retention and skills utilization” and for presenting a “well-explained solution for the global skills crisis.” One judge noted that its dual focus on skills governance and employee engagement “sets a new benchmark for strategic talent development.”

“This recognition is a testament to our team’s relentless passion, innovation, and commitment to
