NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Surrogacy4All has been ranked first in a new 2025 study of U.S. surrogacy agencies by average wait time for surrogate matching, placing the agency ahead of seven others for speed and effectiveness of service.

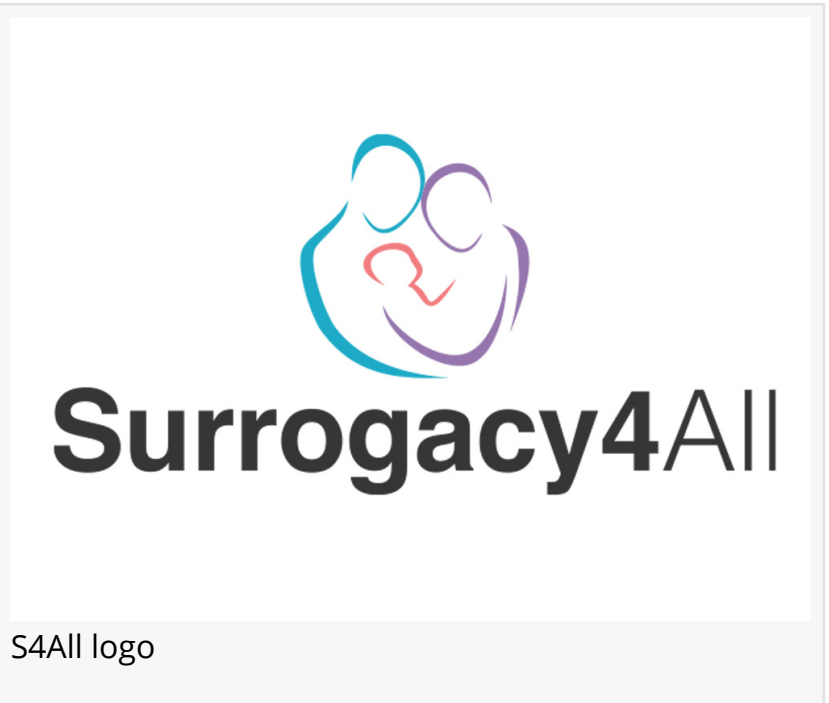

The independent ranking analyzed agency websites, client reviews, and recent discussions on surrogacy forums to determine average wait times for intended parents to be matched with a surrogate. Surrogacy4All topped the list with a matching time of 0-2 weeks, often immediate, due to its large, medically cleared surrogate pool, physician-led process, and licensing in both New York and California.

Our constantly replenished surrogate pool allows many intended parents to match in days.”
