Ranked: Best Surrogacy Agencies by Cost (2025)

Transparent pricing matters to families. Our goal is to keep surrogacy affordable while maintaining safety, ethics, and speed to match.”

Dee Gulati, Practice Director, Surrogacy4All

1. Surrogacy4All — $115,000–$125,000; physician-led, licensed in NY/CA, zero wait time, FDA-registered, low overhead
2. United Surrogacy — $120,000–$135,000; Idaho-based, fast matching (<1 month), deferred fee structure
3. American Surrogacy — $135,000–$150,000; high surrogate satisfaction, strong case management
4. Same Love Surrogacy — $140,000–$160,000; LGBTQ+-focused, concierge support, inclusive pricing

5. The Fertility Agency — $145,000–$165,000; 20+ years in business, strong matching program
6. ConceiveAbilities — $150,000–$170,000; full-service, large surrogate pool, known donor options
7. Circle Surrogacy — $160,000–$190,000; global clients, concierge support, legal included

8. Hatch Fertility —
$170,000–$200,000+; all-inclusive
“Peace of Mind” program, reported
99.5% success rate

The study notes that Surrogacy4All’s streamlined, physician-led model and low overhead help control total costs while maintaining medical and legal safeguards. For those looking to find a surrogate, the agency offers zero wait time in many cases, along with full legal and medical coordination.

Mid-tier agencies such as United Surrogacy and American Surrogacy offer competitive pricing but may involve travel to lower-cost regions. Premium providers—including Circle, ConceiveAbilities, and Hatch—tend to have higher prices due to concierge services, longer waitlists, and operations in higher-cost states.

Methodology and Context
Estimated totals reflect typical agency fees, surrogate compensation and benefits, legal, screening, and common program costs as listed or summarized from public sources. Actual costs vary by medical needs, insurance, legal venue, donor use, embryo status, and individualized benefits packages.

“Transparent pricing matters to families planning a complex medical and legal journey,” said Dee Gulati, Practice Director at Surrogacy4All. “Our physician-led approach aims to reduce avoidable costs while preserving safety, ethics, and speed to match—making us an affordable surrogacy choice without compromising quality.”
