even when staff are unavailable. Using advanced conversational AI, the system engages callers, captures essential information and streamlines front-desk operations to help companies convert more opportunities without increasing overhead.

Key Features of the AI Receptionist:

24/7 Availability: Answers calls at any time so no opportunity is missed

Lead Qualification and Scheduling: Filters inquiries, gathers key details and books appointments

Seamless Integration: Connects directly with the existing VoIP platform including auto attendants, voicemail-to-email and CRM integrations

Smart Escalation: Transfers complex issues to live staff when needed

The AI Receptionist is available for $39.99 per month for 100 minutes with additional minutes at $0.50 each. Setup is fast and the system scales easily to match business growth.

"Small businesses lose potential revenue every time a call goes unanswered," said Chris Duncan at SoundCurve. "This new AI Receptionist ensures customers are greeted professionally, their needs are understood and their requests are handled whether it's day or night."
