As Treasurer, Gableman will oversee the association’s financial stewardship, contribute to strategic planning, and help advance NAA’s mission of empowering auction professionals through advocacy, education, and community.

“I am deeply honored to serve the members of the NAA in this capacity,” Gableman said. “The auction industry is built on trust, transparency, and innovation, and I look forward to contributing to its continued growth and success.”

Jennifer and her husband, Philip Gableman, purchased Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc. in 2020 from her aunt and uncle, continuing the family legacy. Based in the Hudson Valley, AAR is an online-only auction company serving clients locally and beyond. The company hosts auctions ending nightly, featuring real estate, vehicles, heavy equipment, collections, and more. AAR works with private individuals, estates, and municipalities to deliver professional, transparent, and efficient auction services.

With years of industry experience, Gableman has built a reputation for professionalism, integrity, and dedication to clients and the auction profession. Her election reflects both her expertise and the high regard in which she is held by fellow auction professionals nationwide.
