Knutson Casey voted #1 in Rochester

The award underscores the firm's long-standing reputation for excellence, led by attorneys Dan McIntosh, Randy Knutson, Tim Lessman, and Patrick Casey. Together, the partners bring decades of combined experience representing individuals and families in cases involving serious injuries, wrongful death, motor vehicle accidents, and other personal injury matters.

In addition to the firm's recognition, Attorney Randy Knutson has once again been named among the Top 100 Attorneys in Minnesota—an honor he has achieved for seven consecutive years. This distinction reflects his consistent leadership in the field, proven trial skills, and unwavering commitment to clients.

"We are deeply honored by this recognition from the Rochester community," said partner Patrick Casey. "Our team's mission has always been to stand with clients during some of the most difficult times in their lives, and this award reaffirms that commitment."

Partner Dan McIntosh added: "We share this recognition with our staff, our clients, and the community that has placed their trust in us. We will continue to fight tirelessly to ensure the voices of injury victims are heard and their rights protected."

Knutson + Casey's recognition as Rochester's #1 personal injury law firm for 2025 reinforces the firm's position as a trusted advocate for Minnesotans seeking justice and fair compensation.
