

Drinkmate Introduces Stainless Steel Bottles in Two Convenient Sizes

SALINE, MI, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Drinkmate, one of the world's leading producers of home beverage carbonators that can carbonate any beverage, is proud to introduce their stainless-steel bottles, available in both 0.7L and 1L sizes. Designed for durability, style, and functionality, these bottles are a great addition to Drinkmate's growing line of beverage innovation.

The stainless-steel bottles give consumers a sleek and sustainable option for carbonating and storing their favorite beverages. Built with high-quality, BPA-free materials and precision-engineered for Drinkmate's carbonation systems, the bottles maintain freshness and fizz longer than traditional plastic alternatives.

"Consumers want convenience without compromise, and our stainless-steel bottles deliver exactly that," said Kristyn Ristaino, Global Director of Marketing at Drinkmate. "They are stylish, reusable, and built to withstand daily use while offering the flexibility to carbonate and enjoy any drink – from sparkling water to juices and cocktails."

With a modern design and available in two versatile sizes, the bottles are perfect for both everyday use and entertaining. The 0.7L size (MSRP $54.99) offers portability and convenience, while the 1L size (MSRP $59.99) provides maximum capacity for family use or gatherings.
