In addition to her experience as an administrator, Wolf has served as an assistant principal, teacher, and district-level instructional coach. Her leadership has included advancing student-centered initiatives such as Culturally Responsive Teaching, Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS), and social-emotional learning, as well as managing large-scale school events and fostering partnerships with community organizations.

Rochelle Wolf is an outstanding educational leader whose commitment to excellence and equity aligns perfectly with WCUSD’s mission.”

Dr. Emy Flores

Superintendent Dr. Emy Flores commended Wolf’s appointment, saying:

to Cameron Elementary and the district as a whole.”

Board of Education President Joe Magallanes shared:

"We are thrilled to welcome Rochelle Wolf to the WCUSD family. Her proven leadership, dedication to student achievement, and passion for fostering a positive school community make her the ideal choice to lead Cameron Elementary School into an exciting new chapter."

Wolf expressed her excitement about joining WCUSD and working with the Cameron Elementary community:

"I am honored to begin this journey at Cameron Elementary. My goal is to create an inclusive, supportive, and academically challenging environment where every student can thrive, and where families and staff feel valued and engaged."
