

Peirano Estate Winery Launches 'The Great Wine Challenge' After Unprecedented 90+ Ratings Across Entire Portfolio

LODI, CA, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peirano Estate Winery is shaking up the wine world with a bold, industry-wide challenge. After all 14 of its currently released wines earned 90+ point scores and Best Buy accolades from Wine Enthusiast magazine, the family-owned Lodi producer is daring other wineries to match their record.

"This is more than a milestone for us—it's a challenge to the industry," said Lance Randolph, fourth-generation winemaker and owner. "To have every wine in our portfolio recognized for both quality and value is rare. We're proud to set a new standard."

This sweeping recognition places Peirano among an elite tier of American wineries—and reaffirms Lodi's growing reputation as a hub for exceptional, accessible wines.

Why It Matters

In an industry where accolades are hard-earned and consistency is rare, Peirano's achievement isn't just impressive—it's virtually unmatched. This isn't just a challenge; it's a statement of confidence, quality, and craftsmanship.

This recognition underscores what wine lovers, retailers, and critics alike have long suspected: Peirano Estate is one of California's best-kept secrets—offering handcrafted wines with soul, structure, and story, at prices that overdeliver every time.

Calling All Wineries:

If you've got the wines to match, step up. Think your portfolio measures up? We invite wineries across the globe to match our record. The challenge is on!
