

6 Million Jobs Face AI Extinction as AI Business Summit Reveals New Opportunities

Free Summit Features 25 Experts Teaching How to Launch or Use AI Companies While Others Face Unemployment

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As artificial intelligence threatens to eliminate millions of jobs within 24 months, an emergency three-day virtual summit this weekend (August 22-24) reveals how displaced workers can launch AI-powered businesses and existing entrepreneurs can bulletproof their operations. The free AI Business Jumpstart Summit transforms the career crisis facing real estate agents, content creators, graphic designers, and other threatened professionals into unprecedented business opportunities.

Professions Under Immediate AI Threat:

- * Real Estate Agents: Zillow AI valuations replacing 40% of agent functions
- * Content Writers: ChatGPT cutting freelance demand by 70%+
- * Graphic Designers: Midjourney creating professional designs in seconds
- * Customer Service Reps: AI chatbots handling 80% of support inquiries
- * Social Media Managers: Automated content replacing manual posting
- * Bookkeepers: AI eliminating data entry roles

Recent workforce studies predict 6.2 million professional jobs will be "significantly disrupted or eliminated" by AI within 18 months, yet 89% of affected workers have no transition plan. Simultaneously, AI-powered startups are generating billions in revenue with minimal staff, creating a massive wealth transfer opportunity.

"We're witnessing the fastest professional extinction event in human history, but also the greatest business opportunity," said Tony Stark Policci, veteran copywriter and marketing strategist whose direct response campaigns have generated over $400 million for A-list clients, some of whom include Dean Graziosi, Paula Abdul, and business icon Michael Gerber. The CEO of Absolutely Brilliant Concepts and author of the international bestselling "Wise Guys Copywriting Handbook" (#9 of the best 100 copywriting books ever written) has been featured in USA Today, The Wall Street Journal, and Entrepreneur Magazine.

Will you be on the winning or losing side of history's greatest wealth transfer?

Critical business transformation sessions include:

"AI Is Your First Hire: What to Automate in the First 90 Days" – Colette Kemp shows displaced professionals how to launch AI-powered consulting firms and existing business owners how to slash operational costs by 60%.

"From Stranger to Client: Designing Lead Flows That Build Trust at Scale" – Beau Murray reveals how both new AI entrepreneurs and established businesses can generate qualified leads 24/7.

"Social Media Hacking: How I Built $4M Agency from a $260 Monthly Budget" – Patrick Murakam proves how displaced workers can build million-dollar AI agencies and how current business owners can exponentially grow revenue using AI automation.

"Content Creation with AI" – Amanda van der Gulik demonstrates how displaced content creators can build profitable AI content agencies while established brands dominate their markets.

"The AI Trio That Tripled My Content Output" – Sabine Kvenberg shows how solo professionals can launch content businesses competing with major agencies.

Co-host Craige Hardel, web optimization expert and founder of Get Dream Customers, supports Policci's vision by helping professionals transition to AI-powered business owners. "Now we're applying that same wealth-creation expertise to help existing business owners, entrepreneurs, and solopreneurs to AI-proof and boost their operations, and also show any displaced workers how to reinvent themselves to be entrepreneurs and business owners."

The summit addresses the "entrepreneur emergency" affecting both displaced workers seeking new income sources and business owners watching AI-powered competitors capture market share. Each session provides immediate implementation strategies for launching profitable AI businesses or integrating AI systems into existing operations.

Emergency business transformation toolkit includes:

- * AI business launch blueprints for displaced workers

starting from zero

- * Revenue acceleration systems for existing entrepreneurs
- * Step-by-step guides to building AI-powered authority and revenue creation
- * Templates for transitioning traditional businesses to AI-enhanced operations
- * Case studies of both new AI entrepreneurs and established business transformations

Industry analysts warn that while millions of traditional jobs disappear, AI-powered businesses are experiencing unprecedented growth rates, with some achieving profitability within 90 days of launch.

"Behind the Bots: Real-World AI Integrations That Actually Work" – Parth Bhangale reveals the exact AI tools that transform threatened workers into irreplaceable AI specialists.

"The Future of Web Design: Thriving with AI Instead of Competing Against It" – Jeffrey Dalrymple shows designers how to evolve from pixel pushers to AI creative directors commanding premium rates.

"From 6 Months to 2 Hours: What Happens When AI Works Like a Team" – Bryan McIntyre demonstrates how individual professionals can achieve enterprise-level output.

"The same AI destroying jobs is creating unprecedented wealth for those who know how to harness it," added Policci, former Vice President of Piranha Marketing, who helped build one of the most successful direct response companies alongside Genius Network founder Joe Polish. Having ghostwritten dozens of books, including a New York Times bestseller, Policci brings unmatched storytelling and persuasion expertise to AI business strategy. "A displaced real estate agent can launch an AI property management company. A laid-off writer can build an AI content agency. An existing business owner can automate operations and 10x their revenue. The question isn't whether you'll be on the winning or losing side of the greatest wealth transfer in history."

Registration for the encore presentation of the business transformation summit is open now, and the content streams live, on-demand 24/7 from Friday, August 22nd at 8:00 AM EDT, to Midnight, Sunday, August 24th. As many as 50,000 interested individuals are expected to enroll worldwide.
