

Vendorship CEO Dr. Nazeera Dawood Receives 2025 Outstanding Asian American Award by USPAACC-SE

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Nazeera Dawood, CEO of Vendorship Inc., has been honored with the 2025 Outstanding Asian American/Small Business Leader Award by the US Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce Southeast Chapter (USPAACC-SE). This prestigious recognition celebrates her unwavering dedication, visionary leadership and commitment to empowering businesses and communities across the Southeast and beyond. The award was presented during the USPAACC-SE Business Summit and Awards Luncheon held Aug. 13 at Gas South Arena, 6400 Sugarloaf Pkwy in Duluth, Ga.

In addition to receiving the award, Dr. Dawood also participated as a panelist in the "Leadership Through Change" session alongside Jaideep Majumdar, Former CPO City of Atlanta, and Otis Crum, Supplier Development Director at WellStar. The session was moderated by Nedra Dickson, retired Managing Director at Accenture and Chair of the WBENC Board. Dr. Dawood shared insights on navigating challenges, driving innovation, and fostering resilience across industries.

"It is a tremendous honor to receive this award from USPAACC-SE," said Dr. Dawood. "This recognition belongs to the entire Vendorship team and our clients, whose trust and collaboration inspire us to continue creating pathways for success for underrepresented and small businesses in every sector."
