

Tedesco's By God's Design: Life According to God's Word Aims To Help People Strengthen Their Connection To Christianity

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA, PA, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- By God's Design: Life According to God's Word is a practical guide that teaches biblical principles for living a successful Christian life, drawing on author Bob Tedesco's decades of pastoral leadership and professional engineering experience.

About the Book

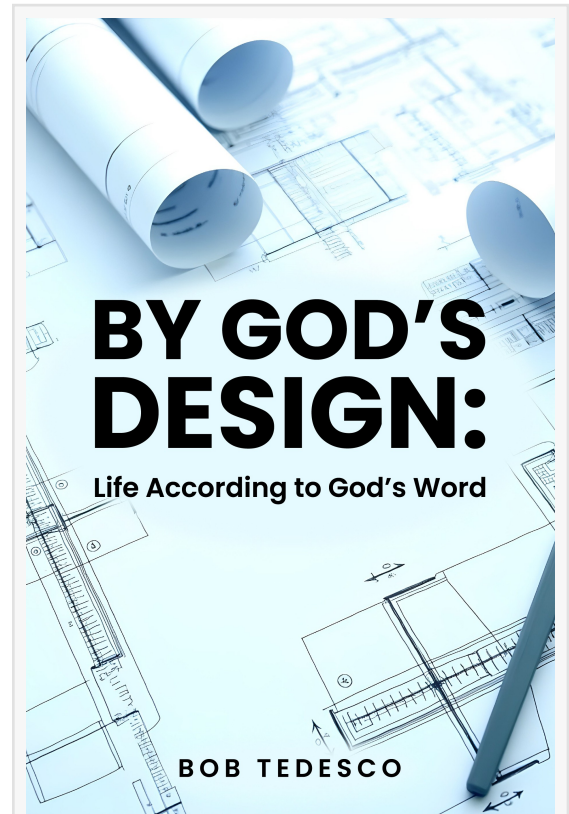

This book is intended for Christians who are already part of relationship-based groups or who are seeking to build them. It draws on Bob Tedesco's long-standing involvement in the People of God, an ecumenical, covenant Christian community in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. In contrast to most parishes, congregations, and movements that explore small-group structures, the People of God is affiliated with the Sword of the Spirit—a global network of approximately 100 communities across North America, Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Ibero-America. Consequently, the book promises to be particularly beneficial to Christian readers from diverse backgrounds owing to its emphasis on biblical principles.

Because of this broad connection, By God's Design offers valuable insight for Christian readers from diverse backgrounds. This book aims to help readers cultivate a scriptural worldview and embrace God's design for their lives. By uncovering often-overlooked aspects of biblical teaching, the book encourages readers to rediscover scripture's treasures and apply its wisdom to their daily lives.
