This award reflects our unwavering commitment to excellence and our team's dedication to providing transformative technology solutions that address the challenges faced by the corrections community.”

Deb Alderson, CEO of ViaPath Technologies

a leader in innovative technology solutions for the corrections industry, proudly shares its recognition as the Top Corrections Reintegration Service 2025 by Government CIO Outlook magazine.

The esteemed award highlights the company's dedication to supporting incarcerated individuals through a comprehensive suite of services focused on education, job training, workforce readiness, substance abuse treatment, mental health support, and vocational offerings, all made available for free via ViaPath's tablets and technology.

Emerging as the Top Corrections Reintegration Service of 2025, the company underwent a rigorous evaluation by an expert panel comprising C-level executives, industry thought leaders, and the editorial board of Government CIO Outlook magazine.

“We are honored to be recognized as the Top Corrections Reintegration Service by Government CIO Outlook magazine,” said Deb Alderson, CEO of ViaPath Technologies. “This award reflects our unwavering commitment to excellence and our team's dedication to providing transformative technology solutions that address the unique challenges faced by the corrections community. We remain steadfast in our mission to support our clients with innovative solutions that enhance safety, operational efficiency, and ultimately, the successful reintegration of incarcerated individuals.”

As of July 1, the current learning hours logged by incarcerated individuals through ViaPath Technologies' tablets reached an impressive 42 million hours, emphasizing the need and desire for the company's technology.

“This remarkable achievement showcases our commitment to preparing individuals who are incarcerated for successful reintegration into society," Alderson said.

ViaPath Technologies continues to lead the way in expanding its innovative offerings, utilizing advanced technology to facilitate communication, streamline operations, and improve safety within correctional environments. The company is committed to empowering correctional facilities to enhance their services and foster positive relationships with the communities they serve.
