

Morphknock by Samira Adami Dadizadeh Wins Iron A' Design Award in Jewelry Design Category

Transformable Jewelry Design Inspired by Persian Door Knockers Receives Prestigious International Recognition

COMO, CO, ITALY, August 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized competition in the field of jewelry design, has announced Samira Adami Dadizadeh as a winner in the Jewelry Design category for her exceptional work titled "Morphknock." This prestigious recognition highlights the significance of the A' Jewelry Design Award within the industry, celebrating innovative and outstanding designs that push the boundaries of creativity and craftsmanship.

Morphknock's transformable design, which seamlessly adapts into a necklace, bracelet, or ring, resonates with the evolving needs and preferences of modern jewelry enthusiasts. By incorporating traditional symbolism and architectural elements into a versatile, wearable piece, Samira Adami Dadizadeh's creation aligns with the growing demand for jewelry that combines cultural significance, functionality, and contemporary aesthetics.

The award-winning design showcases a unique mechanism that allows for effortless transformation, enabling the wearer to customize their look according to their style and occasion. The incorporation of double-sided gemstones, including malachite, lapis lazuli, and black onyx, adds depth and character to the piece, reflecting the rich tones and textures found in aged patinas and oxidized iron. The reversible leather strap and Art Deco-inspired metalwork further enhance the jewelry's adaptability and visual appeal.

Receiving the Iron A' Design Award serves as a testament to Samira Adami Dadizadeh's dedication to her craft and her ability to create jewelry that resonates with both industry professionals and consumers. This recognition is expected to inspire future designs within her brand, fostering a continued commitment to innovation, cultural relevance, and exceptional craftsmanship.
