

Business Strategist Katie Hornor Delivers Closing Remarks at 10th Annual God, Golf and Girls Gala, GCBN's Premier Event

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Georgia Christian Business Network (GCBN), founded by Elizabeth Copeland, hosted its 10th annual God, Golf and Girls gala dinner this past weekend at the Lake Lanier Islands Resort. The event, themed "An Evening of Faith, Fellowship, and Fairways," brought together women leaders, entrepreneurs, and faith-driven professionals for a time of renewal, connection, and inspiration.

International speaker, author, business strategist, and founder of the National Christian Association of Professional Speakers (NCAPS) Katie Hornor delivered the closing remarks. She shared a message centered on God's empowerment in the marketplace and encouraged attendees to embrace their influence in both business and ministry.

This was an Incredible weekend at God, Golf and Girls. Excellently run and organized to bless these women who do so much for other people.”

Katie Hornor

“God is on the move among His people, taking His love into secular industries and marketplaces,” Hornor said. “This was a special time for these women leaders to get filled up again to continue their overflow of ministry.”

The God, Golf and Girls gala and retreat has become a premier gathering for faith-driven businesswomen, equipping participants to strengthen their leadership, expand their impact, and advance the Kingdom through their work.
