

Mayor of Tiburon Officially Honors Troya's Contribution to the Community

Official Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony and Proclamation Marks Troya's Contribution to the Community

TIBURON, CA, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Troya, a new mediterranean restaurant, today announced the Mayor of Tiburon officially welcomed Troya to the community with a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Troya opened its doors on May 1, 2025, and in the last 3 months has made its mark on the community. To recognize this significant achievement, Mayor Holli Thier was in attendance to cut the ribbon and honor Troya with a proclamation.

Troya is the realization of a long-held dream by Founder, Betul Kinalilar, to bring authentic, modern Mediterranean cuisine – rooted in family recipes – to the community. Her goal is to make a lasting impact, and this ceremony marks an important milestone in that journey.

We've had amazing feedback on everything - from our food and service to the ambiance, and the décor. I love being able to create this experience for the community”

Mayor Holli Thier is enthusiastic about Troya's contribution to residents and the wider community of Marin County: “The restaurant is becoming a regular favorite and is already making a positive impact on our town and the local economy.”

Members of Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce were also in attendance including Melanie Haddad, Executive Director and Aaron Stern, Treasurer and Managing Partner, West at

Main Street Research. Troya provided complimentary champagne and a selection of Mediterranean finger foods for guests to enjoy as part of the celebrations. To mark the occasion, Troya also debuted a new wine list, available to all guests dining at the restaurant.

As a local Marin County resident, and mother of a young daughter who attends school in Tiburon, Betul has been excited to share her passion for fresh, healthy Mediterranean cuisine and the response from residents has been phenomenal. "We've been busy since day one, have made many new friends in the community, and celebrated countless special occasions – from birthdays to anniversaries, and retirements" said Kinalilar. "We've had amazing feedback on everything - from our food and service to the ambiance, and the décor. I love being able to create this experience for the community," added Kinalilar.

Troya Tiburon is open every day from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for brunch and lunch and from 4:00 p.m. to 8:30pm for dinner. Reservations are recommended. Catering services are also available and in high demand.
