/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Altamonte Baseball Academy \(ABA\) 12U All-Stars have secured back-to-back national titles, capturing the 2025 Cal Ripken World Series U.S. Championship and once again proving they are among the nation's elite.

The 2025 season marks the team's fourth consecutive World Series appearance: finishing second in 2022, third in 2023 and winning the Cal Ripken 11U World Series Championship in 2024. Moving up to a new age division and competing against a field of 42 teams from around the world, the 2025 tournament promised an epic showdown, and the ABA rose to the occasion.

The ABA 12U All-Stars dominated pool play with a 3-0 record, outscoring their opponents 35-2 and earning the U.S. number one seed. They continued their run through bracket play with decisive wins, including a 2-1 thriller over Missouri's Central Ozarks to clinch the U.S. Championship. The team advanced to face Japan in the World Series final, ultimately finishing as World Series runners-up and U.S. Champions.

Players earned individual accolades, including Player of the Game honors for Fernando Moncada, Colten Rollett, Graham Camara and Cooper Harris; All-World Series First Team selections for Graham Camara and Levi Merritt and the prestigious Gold Glove Award for Fernando Moncada. The full roster, including Adrian Arcano, Graham Camara, Yhosiah Diaz, Cooper Harris, Grant Kuchcinski, Chase Lewis, Owen Lind, Levi Merritt, JR Miller, Fernando Moncada, Colten Rollett, Liam Rustand and Luke Stephenson, delivered an unforgettable team
