"We're excited to see such strong participation from our wholesalers as we move through the competition," said Danielle Myers, Executive Director, TRC.

“

The dedication from our partners is evident in the numbers, and it's clear they remain committed to recovering and safely recycling mercury-containing thermostats.”

"The dedication from our partners is evident in the numbers, and it's clear they remain committed to recovering and safely recycling mercury-containing thermostats."

The collections from the top three wholesalers include:

Top 3 Wholesalers	Pounds of Mercury
Johnstone Supply	14.1
R. E. Michel Co.	8.0
Aireco Supply, Inc.	6.2

TRC reports that 56 pounds of mercury, including 5,999 mercury-containing thermostats have been recycled from 38 wholesalers and 145 branches through July in the BMOP contest, which began May 1 and ends Oct. 31.

TRC will announce the winners in December.

About Thermostat Recycling Corporation:

Thermostat Recycling Corp., founded in 1998, is an industry-funded nonprofit corporation supported by 28 manufacturers that historically branded and sold mercury thermostats in the United States. TRC maintains a network of more than 3,600 collection sites nationwide and has recovered more than 3 million thermostats containing 14 tons of mercury since its inception. TRC assumes all costs to transport and properly dispose of mercury switch thermostats recovered from service.
