

Symmetry Festival Brings Electronic Music to the Heart of Iowa

The festival returns to Fairfield, IA for its second year on October 3rd and 4th, 2025

FAIRFIELD, IA, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Symmetry Music & Arts Festival is set to redefine the Midwest music scene, bringing the pulse of electronic music culture to the Heartland. Nestled in the scenic expanse of Fairfield, Iowa, this year's festival promises an unforgettable experience for music lovers and culture seekers alike.

"Normally you would have to go to a larger metropolitan area to have this experience, but we are bringing it to the American Heartland," said Donald Revolinski, festival co-founder. "Symmetry is more than just a festival; it's a celebration of music, art and community that's putting Fairfield on the map as a vibrant cultural hub."

Fairfield, a diverse town of 10,000, has a rich history of hosting world-renowned artists and intellectuals, such as David Lynch and The Beach Boys. With residents hailing from over 80 countries, Fairfield is a melting pot of communities, making it the ideal location for a festival that celebrates unity and diversity.

Event Highlights Include:

- 100+ acts including G Jones, Mersiv, Ravenscoon, Skeler, Ternion Sound, Chef Boyarbeatz, Joker, Plastician, and more
- Special Pre-Party Event featuring The Glitch Mob, Wreckno + more
- Record-setting assembly of Wave artists, biggest in North America to date
- Leading audio systems & purpose-built sound, including the deepest hitting infra-sub
- Uniquely immersive art installations by national and local artists
- Workshops, games, & interactivity by local nonprofits & community members

Symmetry is the culmination of a year-long commitment to championing wave music, a specific sub-genre within electronic dance music, in the region. As the driving force behind many of the electronic music events in the area, the festival brings together the best local and international talent for a truly unforgettable experience.
