

SafePackage™ Now officially a CBP-approved 'Qualified Party' for duty collection on international mail

UT, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We're proud to announce a significant regulatory milestone: SafePackage™ has been officially recognized by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) as a Qualified Party authorized to collect and remit duties on international mail shipments, as mandated by Executive Order 14324, which suspends de minimis duty-free treatment across all countries.

What this means for international postal carriers

Duty compliance handled: As a CBP-certified Qualified Party, SafePackage™ is now authorized to calculate, collect, and remit duties on behalf of carriers, streamlining compliance and minimizing regulatory complexity for international mail shipments.

De Minimis No More: With the elimination of duty-free de minimis treatment coming into effect on August 29, 2025, every international mail item, regardless of its value is now subject to duty obligations. SafePackage™ ensures your shipments meet the new compliance standards hassle-free.

Recognized by CBP: SafePackage™ is entity certified under this framework.□

By stepping into the role of CBP-certified Qualified Party, SafePackage™:

SafePackage™ Now officially a CBP-approved "Qualified Party" for duty collection on international mail

Eases the burden on carriers by assuming duty processing & legal responsibility.

Mitigates risk of penalties due to non-compliance under the expanded duty regulations.

Ensures smoother customs clearance with duties accurately calculated and submitted on time.
