

Affordable Patent Agency Brings Flat-Fee Patent Filing to Every State via Virtual Consultations

Affordable Patent Agency expands nationwide, offering transparent flat-fee patent filing services with the convenience of secure online consultations.

DALLAS,, TX, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Affordable Patent Agency today announced the nationwide rollout of its flat-fee patent filing services, offering virtual consultations that make professional patent support more accessible than ever for inventors, entrepreneurs, and startups across 50 states.

For years, patent services have been associated with unpredictable hourly billing and limited accessibility. Affordable Patent Agency is changing with a transparent flat-fee model and secure online consultations, ensuring inventors can protect their ideas without budget uncertainty or geographic barriers.

“Patent protection should be accessible to every innovator, no matter where they are located,” said Dr. Bela Malik, founder of Affordable Patent Agency. “With our virtual consultation model, inventors from California to New York can now access flat-fee patent filing services without the high costs of traditional law firms.”

The agency’s comprehensive services include provisional, non-provisional, and utility patent applications, as well as design and non-provisional filings, office action responses, and USPTO communications. Additionally, the agency provides patentability searches and analysis.
