The book addresses growing demand for AI-powered financial strategies among entrepreneurs and high-income professionals. French combines artificial intelligence with tax planning, wealth management, asset protection, and business automation.

Key topics include:

- AI-driven tax planning and compliance automation
- R&D tax credits for AI businesses (federal and state)
- Defined Benefit Plans and Captive Insurance strategies
- Estate planning in the digital economy
- Legal tax reduction methods for scaling businesses

Early purchasers of the book gain exclusive access to companion AI tools and resources at ModernMillions.ai, extending the book's strategies into continually updated, actionable digital solutions.

"Entrepreneurs need implementable strategies, not theory. AI creates unprecedented opportunities to build and protect wealth," said French, who has advised businesses on tax strategy for over two decades.

French, the longtime veteran of AI implementation, will appear on financial podcasts and entrepreneurial summits throughout 2025 and 2026 to discuss AI applications in tax, wealth management, and asset protection. He will share his book journey with personalities including Sharon Lechter, Tom Krol, Jay Conner, Ron LeGrand, and Nizan Mosery, to name a few.
