

The Monomorph by Wouter Van Riet Paap Wins Iron A' Design Award in Furniture Design Category

Innovative Chair Design Constructed from 39 Identical Plywood Elements Recognized for Excellence by International Jury

COMO, CO, ITALY, August 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and prestigious international design competition, has announced Wouter Van Riet Paap as a winner in the Furniture Design category for his innovative work, "The Monomorph." This recognition highlights the significance of the A' Design Award within the furniture industry, as it celebrates exceptional designs that demonstrate creativity, functionality, and a positive impact on society.

The Monomorph chair's recognition by the A' Design Award is not only a testament to its innovative design but also its relevance to current trends and needs within the furniture industry. By utilizing a single, repeatable element to create a functional and aesthetically pleasing chair, Wouter Van Riet Paap's design aligns with the growing demand for sustainable, efficient, and modular furniture solutions. This award serves as an inspiration for designers and manufacturers to explore new possibilities in furniture design that prioritize both form and function.

The Monomorph chair stands out for its unique construction, which consists of 39 identical plywood elements connected by steel rods. This modular approach allows for efficient production and flat-pack transportation, while the use of a single, versatile component minimizes waste. The chair's design is not only visually striking but also offers a comfortable and relaxing seating experience, with its intriguing form inviting users to explore it from every angle.

Available in pre-selected colors or untreated raw plywood, the Monomorph chair adapts to various interior styles and preferences.

Winning the Iron A' Design Award for The Monomorph chair serves as a significant milestone for Wouter Van Riet Paap and his design studio, De Ontwerpdive. This recognition validates their approach to design, which focuses on simplicity, efficiency, and the innovative use of space. As a result of this award, Wouter Van Riet Paap and his team are motivated to continue pushing the boundaries of furniture design, exploring new materials, technologies, and forms that enhance the user experience while contributing to a more sustainable future.
