

blissol Now Available on Indemand After Successful Kickstarter Campaign

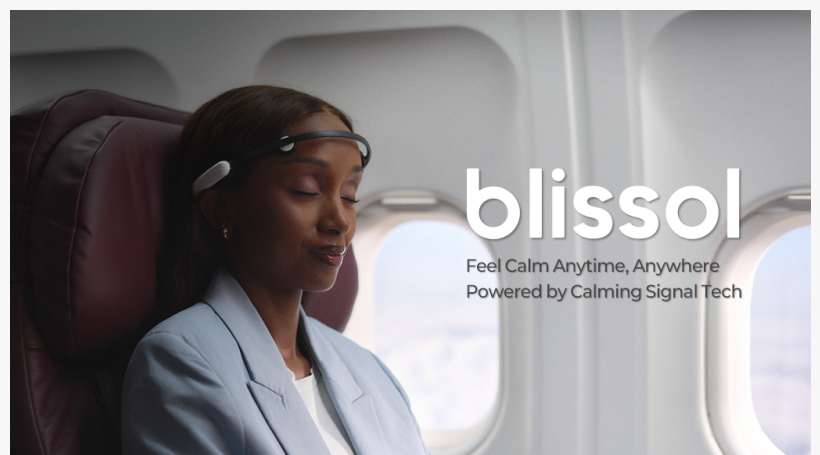

LEESOL Successfully Closes Kickstarter Campaign for "blissol," Raises Over $70,000 — Now Continuing Sales on Indiegogo InDemand

IRVINE, CA, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LEESOL

proudly announces the successful completion of its Kickstarter campaign for blissol, an innovative wearable headband designed to deliver true meditation and deep relaxation without the need for apps, screens, or complicated setups. The campaign exceeded expectations, raising more than $70,000 within 30 days and attracting strong global support from enthusiastic backers.

blissol :Proven Technology for True Relaxation

By moving to Indiegogo InDemand, we can extend this opportunity to even more people who believe in the power of meaningful, effortless relaxation.”

Julie Yoon, CSO

Building on this momentum, LEESOL has officially transitioned blissol to Indiegogo InDemand, extending availability for backers who missed the initial Kickstarter opportunity. This seamless move ensures that the growing community of wellness seekers worldwide can continue to access blissol and experience its breakthrough approach to calm, focus, and balance.

blissol represents a new era of science-backed wellness technology. By utilizing gentle, ultra-low-frequency signals, the device promotes a natural sense of calm and balance. Unlike traditional meditation aids, blissol requires no mobile apps, no digital distractions, and no complex learning curve. With its ultra-lightweight design (just 0.07 lbs) and durable, award-winning craftsmanship, blissol is designed for everyday use—whether at home, work, or during travel.

Notably, blissol has already earned industry recognition, winning a CES 2025 Innovation Award for its contribution to next-generation wellness solutions.

“We are deeply grateful to our Kickstarter backers who helped us bring blissol to life,” said Julie
