The auction offers a unique opportunity for builders, developers, and investors to acquire strategic properties at a time of significant investment and transformation across the city.

“

Atlantic City is on the move with some major new developments bringing both vacation and year-round housing to all areas of the city”

Bob Dann

“Atlantic City is on the move with some major new developments bringing both vacation and year-round housing to all areas of the city.” said Bob Dann, Auctioneer for Tranzon Auction Properties. “We have some “Fixer Upper” Houses and Buildings on the Beach Block a four-unit Airbnb and both residential and commercial lots of all sizes ready for development.”

The timing of the auction aligns with several major developments in the city:

- Bader Field Redevelopment: The CRDA recently approved a $3.4 billion redevelopment plan for the former airport site, signaling a new era of long-term investment.
- Casino Resort Upgrades: The Ocean Casino Resort is investing $50 million as part of a multi-year makeover, and the Tropicana is preparing to unveil its new Solana Tower with over 600 redesigned rooms.

- Shoreline Revitalization: A federal project is depositing 1.2 million cubic yards of sand onto Atlantic City's beaches, enhancing the shoreline just in time for the next tourism season.
- Cultural Growth: The Orange Loop area has emerged as a hub for indie music, nightlife, and arts, adding to the city's appeal for residents and visitors.

The online auction will take place on September 16, 2025, at
