Stevie Awards, DME Service Solutions

This recognition reflects the discipline we've built into how we grow: measurable, aligned with client outcomes, and grounded in trust.”

Richard Lee

DME Service Solutions won in the Medium-size category for Company of the Year - Business or Professional Services.

The recognition highlights a year of meaningful momentum for DME, marked by measurable improvements in productivity, team growth, and operational impact across its healthcare client base. The company was also noted for its strong compliance posture and global people-first culture, with certifications spanning security, privacy, and trust.

“This recognition reflects the discipline we've built into how we grow: measurable, aligned with client outcomes, and grounded in trust,” said Richard Lee, DME Service Solutions CEO and Co-Founder, “It's not about size or scale alone. It's about doing meaningful work that holds up across every part of the business, from delivery to compliance to culture.”

Stevie Award winners were determined by the average scores of more than 250 executives worldwide, who participated in the judging process in May - July.

“The 2025 International Business Awards have set a new benchmark for excellence,” said Stevie Awards President Maggie Miller. “Our winners have demonstrated remarkable ambition and achievement in reaching their goals. We congratulate them on their well-earned recognition and look forward to honoring them on stage in Lisbon on 10 October.”
