

MidSouth Construction Named Roofing Contractor for Legacy Point Apartments

Nashville-based MidSouth Construction will provide roofing for the 350-unit Legacy Point Apartments community in Spring Hill, Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MidSouth Construction Receives Roofing Project Assignment for Legacy Point Apartments in Spring Hill, Tennessee

MidSouth Construction, a Nashville-based roofing company, announced its selection as the roofing contractor for Embrey Buildings' Legacy Point Apartments, a major multifamily development currently underway in Spring Hill, Tennessee.

Roof Installation Begins at Legacy Point Apartments in Spring Hill by MidSouth Construction

This large-scale project includes 18 residential buildings, 10 parking garages, a clubhouse, and a pool house, forming part of a 350-unit multifamily community at 3526 Kedron Road in the Maury County submarket. The development reflects Spring Hill's special blend of traditional family lifestyle, contemporary amenities, and Middle Tennessee's cultural traditions. Construction is expected to be completed by 2025.

I'm proud our team was chosen for Legacy Point Apartments, a project that reflects our expertise and commitment to quality.”

The project will utilize Tamko Heritage architectural shingles in Weathered Wood across the entire building complex to ensure both durability and visual appeal. The pool house will incorporate a 24 Ga Bronze 1.5" SnapLock Kynar-painted standing seam metal roofing system from Watson Metals, providing long-lasting performance and a sophisticated design.

"This opportunity allows us to demonstrate not just the strength of our craftsmanship, but our leadership in the roofing industry," said Austin Burton, Owner of MidSouth Construction. "We're committed to setting the bar higher with each project, ensuring excellence from planning to completion."

Nashville's Commercial Roofing Leader
