

Children's Book 'Hairy Harry Couldn't Hurry' Brings Imagination to Life at Manila International Book Fair 2025

Dr. Victor Bello Inspires Young Minds Through Creative "Imaginactions" in Captivating New Storybook

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Victor Bello, an ophthalmologist turned children's author, introduces readers to a delightful new adventure in his charming book, Hairy Harry Couldn't Hurry: An Imaginarium Of Imaginactions That Take Place In The Hot Days Of Summer. Inspired by the playful curiosity of his two sons, Victor and Vincent, the story showcases the imaginative journey of an ageless spider named Hairy Harry.

Hairy Harry Couldn't Hurry

While observing his sons in their backyard treehouse, Dr. Bello noticed their fascination with a sparkling spider web shimmering in sunlight. This simple, magical moment sparked the idea for a collaborative storytelling experience. Encouraging the creativity of his boys—then only two-and-a-half and four years old—Dr. Bello embraced their imaginative contributions, which he aptly named "Imaginactions," blending youthful ideas directly into the narrative.

The resulting "Imaginarium" invites young readers into a vibrant, interactive world where imagination takes center stage. Hairy Harry's leisurely adventures celebrate the innocence, joy, and boundless creativity that childhood summers are known for. This first installment promises future stories, ensuring readers will look forward to following Hairy Harry and his young companions, Victor and Vincent, in their whimsical journeys ahead.

Dr. Bello, who currently resides in Mobile, Alabama, where he continues to practice ophthalmology part-time, brings warmth and genuine family experiences into his writing, making his story relatable and engaging for children and parents alike.

Hairy Harry Couldn't Hurry will be featured prominently at the Manila International Book Fair 2025, from September 10–14 at the SMX Convention Center Manila, inviting families to explore this imaginative story firsthand.

The book is available now at major online retailers, including Amazon and Barnes & Noble.
