Well-known wireless, telecom, AI and tech expert now taking bookings

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, August 26, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Jeff Kagan has become one of the best-known and renowned Industry Analyst, Columnist, Tech Influencer and Keynote Speaker. A quick look at his website reveals that over several decades, Kagan has given countless speeches, media interviews, written thousands of columns, advised many company executives for tomorrow, and guided the industry through his commentary and thinking.

Jeff Kagan is also author of the book titled, "Father Shares Secrets to Success and Happiness with his Children. You can be successful if you know the secret".

This book was written to his children. It shares some important and valuable secrets of success Kagan learned over the years, which he wanted to pass on to his children.

This book can be purchased in bulk to give away to attendees.

Kagan did not want the valuable and important lessons he learned to be lost. This book was written to his children during a long recovery from an illness.

Over many decades, Kagan has worked with and advised many top competitors and their executives.

Kagan enjoys commenting on the changing industry, new technology like Artificial Intelligence, how it will impact every company and every industry, who will win, who will lose and why, and so much more.

In his speeches and remarks, Kagan also sprinkles humor, and some of the important secrets and lessons from his book with the group.

Kagan enjoys interacting with the audience. Helping them laugh and think through stories on the changing industry and comment on breaking news of the day, all mixed into a friendly conversation that touch people and increase their understanding.

Whether the audience is the CEO, CMO, Board of Directors, executives, workers, business customers and consumers, the media and so much more.

Dick Martin, former EVP of Public Relations at AT&T says, "Jeff Kagan has been described as the most widely quoted analyst in the telecommunications industry", in his book titled; Tough Calls: AT&T and the Hard Lessons Learned from the Telecom Wars.

A Keynote Speaker at a conference or meeting is described as a prominent individual invited to deliver a speech. This is typically at the beginning or end of the event. This helps set the tone, be memorable and inspire attendees.

Finding a good keynote speaker involves considering expertise, stage presence, and the ability to engage the audience.

Effective and successful Keynote Speakers are a blend of expertise learned over time. It is stagecraft, storytelling, humor, engagement with the audience, clarity of message, ability to inspire, explain the path ahead, summarize what every person needs to do in order to be successful for them and for their company, and so much more.

Having Jeff Kagan provide a keynote speech makes the company who brought him in look good to the audience.

CONTACT Jeff Kagan to discuss either becoming a client to raise your profile, or as a Keynote Speaker at your upcoming event.

REPORTERS who want expert, industry opinion and comment for their coverage are invited to contact Jeff Kagan.

COMPANY CEOs and CMOs who want to explore becoming a Kagan client are invited to get in touch.
