announces the next stop on the nationwide tour of Putt Across America, a thrilling pop-up mini golf experience inspired by the most iconic landmarks and landscapes of the United States. Fresh off its 2025 summer debut in our nation's capital, Putt Across America swings into Boston this fall, taking over the historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace (4 S Market St, Boston, MA 02109) in celebration of both the United States' 250th anniversary and Faneuil Hall's 200th anniversary. The all-ages attraction opens September 13, 2025. The first block of tickets is now on sale through January 4, 2026 and available at PuttAcrossAmerica.com/Boston.

Putt Across America is a revolutionary mini golf experience that journeys from tee to shining tee and an entertaining celebration of America's 250th birthday. Guests of all ages will putt their way through 18 larger-than-life holes, traveling from New York to Seattle, Hollywood to Hawaii, and more, including plummeting over Niagara Falls, partying down Bourbon Street, and winning the jackpot on the Las Vegas Strip. Putt Across America blends a playful design with state-themed trivia and fun facts as players drive through the course.

In its 2025 debut at The Wharf in Washington, D.C., Putt Across America was named “Best Things to Do” by The Washington Post, Mommy Poppins, and AXIOS. And DC News Now called it “A revolutionary experience.”

“Junto Entertainment is excited to swing into Boston's Faneuil Hall Marketplace for this year as the market celebrates its 200th anniversary,” shared Junto Entertainment CEO Chris Goodwin. “We are honored that Putt Across America was selected as the attraction to celebrate this historic milestone in the same year we commemorate America's 250th birthday. We look forward to welcoming Boston residents and tourists from around the globe to take a cross-country road trip, just steps from the Freedom Trail where this nation had its start."

"We are thrilled to welcome Putt Across America to our iconic site," stated Faneuil Hall Marketplace. "Putt Across America will add to the vibrancy and appeal of our experience, further bolstering Faneuil Hall Marketplace as a destination both for the Boston community and visitors from around the world. We are honored that Putt Across America has chosen our site to further its business presence and brand."
