Subscription plans are available month-to-month or in 3, 6, or 9-month options.

As part of its launch, Dorm Drop has introduced the Dorm Drop University Ambassador Program, designed for students and organizations looking to boost campus engagement and philanthropy. Through the program, 10% of every sale using a unique code goes directly to a chosen charity.

"The Ambassador Program allows students to give back while gaining leadership and marketing skills," added Hamilton. "It's about creating impact on campus while supporting causes that matter to them."

Dorm Drop is also actively looking to partner with college students who have products for sale.
