The family fun weekend has plenty for the kids to enjoy starting with the Auto World Family Fun Zone packed with games and crafts, a free Model Car Take-and-Make and model car display. When the kids are done, search for parts and collectibles at the swap meet and even search out a new project to drive home in the Cars 4-Sale Corral.

Exciting racing action takes place all three days on the Goodguys Autocross where drivers compete to qualify for a position to compete in Saturday afternoon's Western States Shootout. The show and more racing continues Sunday for all years of American made or powered vehicles with a shot to race in the All American Shootout as part of the Meguiar's All American Sunday, so be sure to drive your newer Mustang, Corvette or Challenger out on Sunday!

For anyone looking to start the hot rodding weekend early, Goodguys is leading a Cruise to WyoTech on Thursday! The cruise will leave the Embassy Suites in Windsor at 9:30AM for a scenic drive north to the WyoTech Trade School campus in Laramie, Wyoming, to meet students and faculty, tour the school, and enjoy lunch.
