You Go Girl; Meet Women Who Rock Real Estate

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, August 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "You Go Girl". Both men and women invest in real estate. But honesty, women have certain "challenges" that men just don't have to think about. So please join us at the Los Angeles County Real Estate Investors Association monthly meeting, Thursday night, September 11, 2025, 6:30 to 9:30 pm, where investors will learn how to confront these challenges and become successful real estate investors. This event is always LAC-REIA's largest attended event of the year, so don't miss it!

Guest Speakers: This month LAC-REIA have a unique panel of four women from the Women's Real Estate Network ("WREN") who are kicking butt in Real Estate? These women have been in the trenches, confronted and conquered challenges, and know how to swing a hammer (though they've learned they don't have to). And that's what they will share with attendees. Their stories are as different as their personalities, but they all share two things in common: They are successful at what they do, and they earn a good living doing it! Attend and learn what advantages women have when investing in real estate. During this panel discussion, investors will learn:

Women have several unique advantages when it comes to real estate investing”

Deborah Razo, President of the Women's Real Estate Network

- Why women are smarter, tougher and better-looking than men

- How to find deals in a changing market
- Meet experts in flipping, wholesaling & raising money
- How to structure deals with multiple exits strategies in mind
- The key resources to grow investor's real estate business
- Unlock investor's full potential at real estate investing
