

Van Camp, Meacham & Newman Announces Addition of Carolina Tax, Trusts & Estates Practice Group

PINEHURST, NC, UNITED STATES,
August 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --
Van Camp, Meacham & Newman, PLLC has recently announced the addition of attorneys Jesse T. Coyle and Robert J.
(Bob) Gallagher, along with the entire

Carolina Tax, Trusts & Estates team, significantly expanding the firm's capabilities in the region.

This strategic integration makes Van Camp, Meacham & Newman the most comprehensive and experienced legal team in the area, particularly in complex estate planning, tax law, and estate administration—areas of critical importance to both individuals and businesses. The addition of top-tier tax and estate planning specialists builds upon the firm's established strengths in litigation, personal injury, wrongful death, domestic and family law, real estate, and criminal defense, allowing the firm to provide a broader range of services for its clients.

The expansion comes at a time when the firm has once again been recognized by Best Lawyers® 2025 as one of the Best Law Firms in North Carolina, a distinction that underscores its long-standing reputation for legal excellence. With the arrival of the Carolina Tax, Trusts & Estates team, Van Camp, Meacham & Newman reinforces its client-centered philosophy—ensuring that every client receives not only technical proficiency, but also attentive service and practical solutions tailored to their needs in every area of their practice.
