honeybars, is stepping up to the plate to announce its first-ever celebrity collaboration: the J.T. Realmuto Stir-fry. The limited-time dish, created in partnership with Philadelphia Phillies All-Star catcher J.T. Realmuto, debuts today, Wednesday, August 27, at honeygrow locations across Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware, and will also be available for order through the honeygrow app and website in those locations.

Created exclusively by Realmuto, the $11.97 stir-fry combines honeygrow's freshly made whole wheat noodles with roasted chicken, red onion, mushrooms, scallions, tossed in honeygrow's signature Garlic Butter sauce, and topped with avocado and freshly grated Parmesan cheese, all of which are his own favorite flavors. Each serving delivers 45 grams of protein and 23 grams of fiber for a high-protein, nutrient-packed meal fit to fuel everyone looking for fresh, tasty fare. The J.T. Realmuto Stir-fry further emphasizes the brand's dedication to its roots and origin story, as well as offering fresh, customizable meals that suit a variety of lifestyles and dietary preferences through its CYO menu.

“What I love about honeygrow is that I can customize a meal that is not only protein-packed but also tastes delicious,” says Realmuto. “I hope everyone loves it as much as I do.”

“After 21 years living in Philadelphia, the city has become my family's home, and we are huge Phillies fans, so working with J.T. is extremely exciting,” said Justin Rosenberg, founder and CEO of honeygrow. “Being able to create this menu item with an incredible hometown hero like J.T. has been an amazing experience.”
