"Properties like this rarely become available," says Lisa Sorrentino of Team Sorrentino. "From the architecture to the views, every detail is designed for buyers who want something truly extraordinary."

Spanning 2,800 square feet of total living space, the residence comprises a 2,200 sq. ft. main house with 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, along with a 600 sq. ft. detached ADU featuring 1 bedroom and 1 bathroom. The home is defined by soaring ceilings, walls of glass, and seamless indoor-outdoor flow, creating the ultimate setting for elevated entertaining and modern California living.

The detached ADU offers exceptional flexibility as a private guest retreat, creative studio, or income-generating rental, making the property as functional as it is striking.

Perched south of Ventura Boulevard, the home commands panoramic views from sunrise to sunset over Studio City, the Hollywood Hills, and beyond, offering a truly dramatic backdrop for daily life.
