-- Tickets are now available for the second annual James Hardie™ Pro

Football Hall of Fame Invitational, taking place March 2–8, 2026 at The Old Course at Broken Sound in Boca Raton, Florida. This fan-friendly, one-of-a-kind weeklong event pairs PGA TOUR Champions with legends from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in a unique celebration of competition, community, and philanthropy. Tickets start at $18.99 and are available at JamesHardieInvitational.com/tickets.

Unlike larger tournaments, this fan-first experience gives spectators unprecedented access—walking alongside golf and football greats in the only tournament in the world where PGA TOUR Champions professionals and Pro Football Hall of Famers compete side by side.

Following its highly successful 2025 debut, the tournament has shifted four weeks earlier on the calendar, a move expected to attract an even stronger field. Once again, 78 PGA TOUR Champions professionals will compete alongside 26 football legends during Friday and Saturday rounds, with Champions Tour pros playing through Sunday.

“Year one was a tremendous success, bringing together the legends of golf and football in an unprecedented way,” said Ken Kennerly, Executive Director of the James Hardie Invitational. “The response from both fans and players has been overwhelmingly positive, and we are thrilled to build on that momentum heading into 2026. This event has a very bright future.”

The week kicks off with fan-favorite Pro-Am events on March 4–5, featuring 52 NFL players teaming with amateur golfers in spirited play. Tournament rounds (March 6–8) will be broadcast live on Golf Channel to national and international audiences.

Defending champion Tim Brown, Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2015, will return to defend his title after winning the inaugural football division alongside PGA TOUR Champions pro Tim O'Neal at 14-under par. "Until I am dethroned, I am the champion! I am looking forward to being back in 2026 at the James Hardie Invitational to defend... that's right, to defend my belt," Brown said. Last year's field included Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor, Marshall Faulk, Calvin Johnson, and Jerome Bettis, among others.

On the professional side, Ángel Cabrera earned his first U.S. win since 2014 in 2025, posting rounds of 68-66-71 and securing a $330,000 purse along with fully exempt status on the Champions Tour.
